

Indigo Milky Lactarius indigo

Traits: Cap up to 15 cm in diameter, convex becoming flat, zoned at the margin; stem up to 8 cm high, blue, hollow; deep blue gills staining green, adnate; dark blue milk turning green on exposure; thick bluish flesh; ocher spores

When: occasional Aug. → Oct.

Where: symbiotic with White pines

