

Fly Agaric Amanita muscaria

Traits : cap up to 25 cm in diam., convex becoming flat, yellow orange, adorned with cream colored flakes; tight white gills ; stipe up to 18 cm high, with ring on top of bulb; white spores

When: abundant June \Rightarrow Oct.

Where: under coniferous, birch, poplar

Risks: hallucinogenic species; possible confusion possible with other toxic amanitas