

Arbor-vitae Lactarius Lactarius salmonicolor

Traits: orange coloured; cap up to 12 cm in diam., convex becoming depressed; stem up to 8 cm high, hollow; orange coloured milk; pale yellow spore print

When: abundant July → Sep.

Where: scattered in wetlands under spruce and fir

Note: looks like the less palatable Orange-latex Milky, which colours green when bruised; Idem L. thyinos

