

Flammulina velutipes / Enokitake

Characteristics: cap up to 6 cm, reddish to yellowish, rubbery; yellow gills; velvety stipe darkening at base, up to 7 cm; white spores

When: cool temperature, May → Oct.

Where: on hardwood living or dead, poplar notably

Risks of confusion: Galerina marginata, in clusters on rotten wood, brownish, rusty spores, deadly

Flammulina velutipes

Cultivated under cover