

Amanite de Jackson Amanita jacksonii

B3

Traits: chap up to 5cm diam. , striated, orange to bright red towards apex; free yellowish gills; stipe up to 20cm, yellow, covered with red fibrils, yellow veil, white sac-like volva; white spores

When: rare, isolated July → Sept.

Where: with young oaks and beeches

Risks: confusion with Fly-agaric and other dubious Amanitas

